

Product Overview

This cell phone LCD screen is a high-quality display made of advanced technology and materials, with high resolution, high brightness, high contrast, wide viewing angle and other characteristics, which can bring you a clear, delicate and realistic visual experience

Strongly recommended: professional maintenance services, in order to protect the use of safety and after-sales rights and interests, it is strongly recommended that you go to a regular repair store for installation. Self-operation may lead to the following risks:

- 1.Secondary damage to the screen: Improper disassembly is easy to squeeze the screen or scratch the wires;
- 2.Functional anomalies: poor contact with the wires may cause touch malfunction or displaycolor spots;

After-sales service disclaimer: If the screen is damaged or the function is abnormal due to self-installation, this product will not provide after-sales service

Installation Instructions

1. Please be sure to replace the screen in a professional cell phone repair environment to avoid damage to the phone due to improper operation.
2. Before replacing the screen, please turn off the power of your cell phone and remove the cell phone battery and SIM card.
- 3.Use professional tools to carefully remove the phone case and original LCD screen.
- 4.Install the new LCD screen to the phone and make sure it is firmly connected.
- 5.Reinstall the phone case, battery and SIM card
6. Turn on the power of the phone and check if the screen is working properly.